Massif des Bauges Natural Park

Stunning cycling is a common theme throughout the French Alps, but few regions can match the Massif des Bauges Natural Park. Incredible scenery, big climbs and super-quiet roads combine to make this one of the top cycling destinations in the Alps – and your entire ride today takes place in this natural paradise.

The ride starts with a 20km warm-up along the valley floor before you head into the Natural Park over the 9km Col du Frêne. After 70km a beautiful descent takes you down to Lake Annecy and a few km of flat along the shores of this magnificent lake. Next up is the famous Mont Semnoz, the final climb of the 100th edition of the Tour de France back in 2013 when Nairo Quintana was first over the finish line. The scenic Col des Prés is your last obstacle before the long descent back to the hotel and the end of a magnificent day on the bike.

The penultimate stage and the organisers have designed a real thriller of a stage to close out the 2023 Tour de France. The Tour stage includes 8 categorised climbs, our ride has 9 categorised climbs, the final 5 climbs on the actual race route! If the GC classification is still pretty close, this final stage will blow the race apart for sure.

Your ride starts from the hotel and we pick up the race route after 37km in the village of Cornimont. Expect huge crowds to cheer you over each of the next 5 climbs – but remember to save something in the legs, the last 2 climbs over the Petit Ballon and the Col de Platzerwasel are killers.

On arriving at the Finish in Le Markstein, you'll have the unique experience of riding your bike across the Official Finish Line just a few hours ahead of the peloton – followed by a photo shoot on the Official Podium. We'll round off an amazing Tour de France day by witnessing the Race Finish from the VIP Finish Line Tribune in Le Markstein.

Day 8

End of the Paris Extension

Sadly, your trip to the Tour de France in the Alps and Paris has come to an end.

The trip ends at the hotel in Paris on Monday July 24 after breakfast.

Please note we will not be providing a drop-off service on Monday morning. In our past experience, many guests have stayed on in Paris for a few extra days, and those returning home on the Monday have had flights at various times of the day and from different airports, making it difficult to schedule airport transfers at the right times. Our staff (and the hotel staff) will be available to help you reserve transport to the airport or train station.
